

CCS Parents/Guardians:

You have notified us that your family has moved or are planning on moving. Please complete and return the attached Charter School Student Enrollment Notification Form. Along with the completed form, you must also submit two (2) of the following acceptable proofs of residency: a deed, mortgage statement or lease; a utility bill; a credit card bill; a property tax bill; vehicle registration; and a driver's license or a D.O.T. identification card. All proofs of residency must be current, not expired, and clearly list both current address and legal name of the parent(s)/guardian(s). Lastly, unacceptable items include an envelope with the address listed on it, cell phone, home or auto insurance bills, bank statements, and paystub information. Please list the date you moved to your new residence on the top of the enrollment form.

These documents are required by Collegium Charter School in order to receive funding for your child to attend Collegium. No bus changes can be made until all documents have been received by Collegium. Bus assignments may take up to two (2) weeks to process.

If you have any questions please contact me.

Sincerely,

Susan Novak
